I was directed to your web sight because I was looking for New beginnings equine center , Morrison, FL. They got a horse from me under false pretences. They told me they were a rescue that needed older calm horses for a kids camp they were starting. Me and my husband believed them and gave them "skip" They said he won't leave the farm and we could visit. Wrong, as far as we can tell they sold him. I have found out they gave the same lie to another lady and then sold her horse to. Another lady bought a horse from them only to find out it was a lot older then they told her and lame. Of course they won't take the horse back.

Anyways when we went to visit skip soon after they took him , the lady alicia, let me know that he was her horse now and I was not really wanted. I was really upset but left. I figured I would go back at another time, maybe she was having a bad day I told myself. I called, e-mailed and went back out. They were never there and will not e-mail or call me back.

I have other rescues looking out for him and I hope you will keep a eye out for him for me. If he is in a good home that's great, if not I am more then willing to buy him back from who ever bought him.

Enclosed is pics of him. His name and age have probably been changed.
Skip, 18yr, star, snip, stripe. , white on both hind legs, 16hh, scar on jawbone and on rear leg.
Walks with a limp (bad hip). Please let me know if you see him.

Thanks penny

I will let people know you are not the same people...
